- 1 oz. Red Vermouth
- 1 oz. Gin
- Ice
- Fresh sliced orange

RECIPE OF NEGRONI: ALL THE STEPS

Now the simple steps to perfectly mix your homemade Negroni.

- 1 When possible, use a short Tumbler glass, the go-to choice of Mixologists. If you prefer your drinks on the rocks, fill the glass three quarters of the way full with ice.
- 2 To be able to dose every ingredient to perfection like a true Mixologist, using a Jigger would be ideal. The small, steel, hourglass shaped measuring cup designed specially for mixing cocktails. While they come in various sizes, the standard Jigger has a perfect 1-ounce measuring cup ideal for dosing the Negroni ingredients. If you do not have a Jigger on hand, it is recommended to use an alternative instrument, perhaps a shot glass, to precisely dose the ingredients so as to perfectly recreate the harmony of the three core elements of this iconic drink.

- 3 Back to the preparation, it is the moment to proceed with dosing and pouring the single ingredients into the glass. In order, first comes the Gin, second the Red Vermouth, and lastly the Bitter liqueur.
- 4 Gently stir the ingredients, ideally with a Stirrer for optimal results, and add a slice of fresh cut orange to the glass. The Negroni is ready to be served. Immediate consumption is recommended to fully enjoy the cocktails peculiarities.
